

Discussion Board

In this section of GROWING BETTER FAMILIES, members will have the opportunity to post questions and concerns that can then be addressed by other members. This is the place for members to share problems and solutions and to give and receive assistance and support.

All submissions become the property of GROWING BETTER FAMILIES and will be filtered prior to being posted. GROWING BETTER FAMILIES reserves the right to remove any contributions that are deemed inappropriate for this program.

Thank you very much for your participation.
